- (4) An appeal of expulsion may be taken to a extraordinary general meeting of the “Society” which shall be called for that purpose if the appellant submits a written request. Such appeal shall be decided by a majority vote of members present.

PART 3 – GENERAL MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

General Meetings

3.1 A general meeting must be held at the time and place the Board determines:

- (1) General meetings shall be held as the Societies Act requires or the Directors decide, with each member in good standing for thirty (30) days prior to the meeting entitled to one vote.
- (2) The Annual General Meeting shall be held each year on such day, place and hour as the Directors may determine as soon as possible subsequent to the “Society’s October 31st year end, but in any event not later than 60 days after the completion of the “Society’s year end financial statements.

Ordinary business at Annual General Meeting

3.2 At an Annual general meeting, the following business is ordinary business:

- (a) adoption of rules of order;
- (b) adoption of the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting;
- (c) consideration of any financial statements of the “Society” presented to the meeting;
- (d) consideration of the reports, if any, of the directors or auditor;
- (e) election or appointment of directors;
- (f) appointment of an accountant, if any;
- (g) business arising out of a report of the directors not requiring the passing of a special resolution;
- (h) consideration of a major capital expenditures budget. (Excluding emergency, and life and safety and continuity of operations.)

Extraordinary General Meetings

3.3 (1) Every general meeting, other than an Annual General Meeting, is an extraordinary general meeting.

(2) Extraordinary general meetings may be called as deemed desirable or necessary by the Directors.

(3) Extraordinary general meetings must be called:

- (a) upon receipt by the directors of a written request to hear an appeal against a member’s expulsion, or
- (b) upon receipt by the directors of a written, signed request by at least ten members in good standing which sets forth the business to be discussed at the extraordinary meeting.

(4) No other business shall be considered than that for which the extraordinary general meeting has been called.

3.4 (1) Notice of general meetings, and the proposed agenda, must be given not less than fourteen (14) days in advance. Notice of meetings shall be sent to all members by e-mail to the e-mail address on the member’s application form, and displayed at the front entry notice board of the Okanagan Mission Community Hall, in the Okanagan Mission Community Hall website, in the Tennis Committee website and on a recognized local on-line media at least once in each week of the fourteen (14) days immediately before the meeting.

(2) The failure of any member to observe or receive notice shall not invalidate the meeting.

Notice of special business

3.5 A notice of a general meeting must state the nature of any business, other than ordinary business, to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to permit a member receiving the notice to form a reasoned judgment concerning that business.

(a) Special business is:

- (i) all business at an extraordinary general meeting except the adoption of rules of order, and
- (ii) all business conducted at an annual general meeting, except the following:
 - (A) the adoption of the agenda;

 - (F) the appointment of the accountant, or the waiver of Section 8.2 of these bylaws;
 - (G) any other business that, under these bylaws, ought to be conducted at an annual general meeting, or business that is brought under consideration by the report of the Directors issued with the notice convening the meeting.

Chair of general meeting

3.6 The following individual is entitled to preside as the chair of a general meeting:

- (a) the individual, if any, appointed by the Board to preside as the chair;
- (b) if the Board has not appointed an individual to preside as the chair or the individual appointed by the Board is unable to preside as the chair,
 - (i) the president,
 - (ii) the vice-president, if the president is unable to preside as the chair, or
 - (iii) one of the other directors present at the meeting, if both the president and vice-president are unable to preside as the chair.

Alternate chair of general meeting

3.7 If there is no individual entitled under these Bylaws who is able to preside as the chair of a general meeting within 15 minutes from the time set for holding the meeting, the voting members who are present must elect an individual present at the meeting to preside as the chair.

Quorum required

3.8 Business, other than the election of the chair of the meeting and the adjournment or termination of the meeting, must not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of voting members is present.

Quorum for general meetings

3.9 The quorum for the transaction of business at a general meeting is 20 voting members.

Lack of quorum at commencement of meeting

- 3.10 If, within 30 minutes from the time set for holding a general meeting, a quorum of voting members is not present,
- (a) in the case of a meeting convened on the requisition of 10 members, the meeting is terminated, and
 - (b) in any other case, the meeting stands adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and if, at the continuation of the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes from the time set for holding the continuation of the adjourned meeting, the voting members who are present constitute a quorum for that meeting.

If quorum ceases to be present

- 3.11 If, at any time during a general meeting, there ceases to be a quorum of voting members present, business then in progress must be suspended until there is a quorum present or until the meeting is adjourned or terminated.

Adjournments by chair

- 3.12 The chair of a general meeting may, or, if so directed by the voting members at the meeting, must, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at the continuation of the adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the adjourned meeting.

Notice of continuation of adjourned general meeting

- 3.13 It is not necessary to give notice of a continuation of an adjourned general meeting or of the business to be transacted at a continuation of an adjourned general meeting except that, when a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the continuation of the adjourned meeting must be given.

Order of business at general meeting

- 3.14 The order of business at a general meeting is as follows:
- (a) elect an individual to chair the meeting, if necessary;
 - (b) determine that there is a quorum;
 - (c) approve the agenda;
 - (d) approve the minutes from the last general meeting;
 - (e) deal with unfinished business from the last general meeting;
 - (f) if the meeting is an annual general meeting,
 - (i) receive the directors' report on the financial statements of the "Society" for the previous financial year, and the accountant's report, if any, on those statements,
 - (ii) receive any other reports of directors' activities and decisions since the previous annual general meeting,
 - (iii) elect or appoint directors, and
 - (iv) appoint an accountant, if any, or the waiver of Section 8.2 of these bylaws;

- (g) deal with new business, including any matters about which notice has been given to the members in the notice of meeting;
- (h) terminate the meeting.

Methods of voting

- 3.15 1) At a general meeting, voting must be by a show of hands, an oral vote or another method that adequately discloses the intention of the voting members, except that if, before or after such a vote, 2 or more voting members request a secret ballot or a secret ballot is directed by the chair of the meeting, voting must be by a secret ballot.
- (2) Election of Directors shall be by secret ballot.
- (3) A member in good standing present at a general meeting is entitled to one (1) vote.

Announcement of result

- 3.16 the chair of a general meeting must announce the outcome of each vote and that outcome must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Majority in Voting

- 3.17 At all meetings of the Association ordinary resolutions or motions will be decided by a simple majority of the votes; special resolutions require a seventy-five percent (75%) majority.

Proxy voting ~~not~~ permitted

- 3.18 A member in good standing may present up to one (1) proxy upon and in the prescribed form and format and vote same after having registered them prior to the meeting's start.

Matters decided at general meeting by ordinary resolution

- 3.19 A matter to be decided at a general meeting must be decided by ordinary resolution unless the matter is required by the Act or these Bylaws to be decided by special resolution or by another resolution having a higher voting threshold than the threshold for an ordinary resolution.

PART 4 – DIRECTORS

Number of directors on Board

- 4.1 The "Society"s Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) members, or such number as may be determined from time to time in a general meeting.

- 4.2 (1) At each annual general meeting, the voting members entitled to vote for the election of directors must elect or appoint the Board.
- (2) Nominating Committee shall do a call for nominations one (1) month prior to the AGM. The Nominating Committee shall present a slate of candidates 14 days prior to the AGM, along with the meeting notice, of members who have accepted to be presented as candidates and have complied by filling out and submitting the Director Consent form 16 days prior to the AGM.

- (3) Candidates for director positions must put their names forward 2 weeks in advance of the annual general meeting to the Nominating Committee.
- (4) A designation, election or appointment of an individual as a director is invalid unless
 - a) the individual consents in writing or by e-mail to be a director of the society, or
 - b) the designation, election or appointment is made at a meeting at which the individual is present and the individual consents, at the meeting, to be a director.
- (5) Any member in good standing is eligible to stand for election as a Director upon accepting a nomination.
- (6) An election may be by acclamation; otherwise it shall be by secret ballot.
- (7) At the annual general meeting the determined number of Directors shall be elected. They in turn at their first meeting together shall elect the Executive officers, namely the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Executive Office of President is for a term of no more than two (2) years.
- (8) The position of Past President is an automatic position.

Directors may fill casual vacancy on Board

- 4.3 The Board may, at any time, appoint a member as a director to fill a vacancy that arises on the Board as a result of the resignation, death or incapacity of a director during the director's term of office.

Term of appointment of director filling casual vacancy

- 4.4 A director so appointed holds office only until the next annual general meeting at which time they will be eligible for re-election.

Continuity of Governance

- 4.5 (1) In order to facilitate continuity of governance four (4) Directors shall be elected on the even years and three (3) shall be elected on the odd years. All directors shall be elected for a two year term.
(2) Directors may not serve more than three (3) consecutive terms.

Removal of a Director

- 4.6 The members may by special resolution remove a Director before the expiration of the term of office and may appoint a member in good standing. Such appointment will be in effect until the next Annual General Meeting.

PART 5 – DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

Proceedings of Directors

- 5.1 (1) The Directors may meet at the places they agree upon, adjourn and otherwise regulate their business, as they see fit.
(2) Notice of meetings of the Directors may be given by mail, telephone, e-mail, or in person.
(3) Four (4) Directors shall form a quorum at any of their meetings, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes except as provided otherwise by the bylaws. In the case of a tie the motion is lost.

- (4) A Director who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the board without giving notice or reason may cease to be a Director at the discretion of the board.
- (5) A Past President who is not a Director shall not carry a vote on the Board.

5.2 A directors' meeting may be called by the president or by any 2 other directors.

E-mail voting
